

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The Honorable Price Daniel, of Liberty, is one of the most distinguished citizens of the State of Texas, having served as State Representative, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Attorney General, United States Senator, and Governor of Texas; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Price Daniel has, for many years, devoted much time and effort to the betterment of conditions at the reservation and to the well-being and prosperity of the Alabama-Coushatta Indians of East Texas; and

WHEREAS, The Alabama-Coushatta Reservation, near Livingston, is the only Indian reservation in the United States which is not under control of the federal government; and

WHEREAS, Price Daniel has worked diligently throughout the years as legal advisor without pay, as spokesman in Austin and in Washington, and as a close friend of the members of the tribe; and

WHEREAS, He has been diligent in his continuing efforts and has cooperated to the fullest extent in all matters for the betterment of this tribe of Indians; and

WHEREAS, He has served as a voluntary and enthusiastic consultant on Indian Affairs at the request of the Governor of this State, ^{the} Honorable John Connally, and has cooperated fully with the Honorable Ben Barnes, Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives; ^{the} Honorable Preston Smith, Lieutenant Governor of Texas; and with the Senators and Representatives who, by law, created the Texas Commission on Indian Affairs during the 59th Legislature; and

WHEREAS, The Alabama-Coushatta Reservation today has become one of the outstanding tourist attractions in this State, bringing many persons into the East Texas area, where they can learn of the history and culture of the Alabama-Coushatta Indians, and see for themselves the great progress being made by these Indians today; ^{now,} therefore, be it

concurring, That the Honorable Price Daniel, distinguished son of Texas, be, and is hereby, commended and congratulated for his many years of unselfish and voluntary service as advisor, attorney, and friend to the people of the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Tribe, who revere and love him; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the members of the Legislature of Texas recognize the achievements of this great Texan and the part which he has played in the creation of the Texas Commission on Indian Affairs, and his invaluable counsel with officials of this State, the Commission on Indian Affairs and the Tribal Council of the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable recognition for the outstanding achievements in the field of Indian Affairs, be given to ^{the} Honorable Price Daniel at a suitable time and place.
